Welcome to the Victorious "LIGHT BLUES!"

By THE EDITOR.

were delighted with Cambridge University's brave victory over Oxford at Twickenham on Tuesday. Welshmen in the side made it more than mere good news and thus the side is assured of a great welcome today at the Arms Park. They come in glory, and unfortunately Battle of Youth! Spectators should from all points of view Cardiff will have an enjoyable afternoon, not be at full strength to show to watching the stars of the future. them their true power.

Nevertheless Cardiff are strong in spirit today, and Bill Tamplin and his men will be a good side. The famous Blue and Black jerseys make a player feel he is a member of a great club and sharing in a great tradition. Indeed, he will play much harder. Thus the young Rugby followers everywhere players in the side today, filling the "gaps" caused by the calls of the Trials Match at Neath, will be on their mettle. They will play as The fact that there were three hard and with the same enthusiasm as did the young players of Cambridge against Oxford on Tuesday.
