WELCOME TO THE "QUINS!"

By THE EDITOR.

It is many years now, since the most famous of English Clubs first came to the Arms Park. Longer than many of us care to remember, but we are pleased to say that their visits have always been enjoyable ones. To-day they are with us again, with a strong record, and a good side.

Founded in 1867, it was first known as the Hampstead F.C. The present title was adopted in 1870 when the Club moved to a ground near Highbury Station.

They first visited South Wales and played Cardiff in 1884.

Since that date their record has been a wonderful one. This season they have supplied several players to the Middlesex side which won the County Championship. Again they had several men in the London Counties side which were the only team to defeat the touring South Africans.

Last season the Harlequins were the first side to lower the colours of an invincible Newport team. However, this season they have not been so successful against Welsh Clubs. To-day's match promises to be a hard one. Both sides will be feeling the strain of their hard matches of Saturday.

We afford a special welcome to Mr. Adrian Stoop and Mr. Ken Chapman, two famous Harlequin players and officials. May they continue to visit us for many years to come.

We also afford a warm welcome to the Harlequin Wanderers and Llandaff sides who are our guests at this match. They played each other this morning.
