NOTES

PONTYPOOL'S victory came as a surprise, as it was anticipated that the ground advantage would lay with the All Blacks, whose record this season is not too imposing. If consolation is needed for the defeats sustained, it can be found in the fact that the majority of them have been by margins of three or less points.

Cardiff, one of the most renowned teams in the world, are very welcome visitors to the Gnuil to-day, when a record crowd is expected. We were hoping that the All Blacks would have had the opportunity of being the first Welsh team to triumph over them, but that honour was Llanelly's on Saturday. Still, the All Blacks are not unmindful of the staggering defeat at Cardiff on 6th September, when they went down 21-3 and Neath's supporters left the Arms Park bewildered. To-day should, therefore, see Neath striving hard to secure victory by way of consolation. One thing is certain, and that is that Cardiff will — as always — play attractive, open football, and the game should be a classic.

SPORTING TALKS

The first of a series of talks by prominent sporting personalities arranged by the Supporters' Club was greatly enjoyed by a good and appreciative audience, who listened to Mr. Wilfred Wooller with rapt attention. Such meetings tend to create a greater spirit of friendliness among supporters, as was evident on Tuesday. The Committee feel that they are providing a much felt want, and they look for support at future meetings, which are arranged primarily for YOUR benefit.

NEXT SATURDAY AT THE GNOLL:

LLANELLY SCHOOLBOYS v. NEATH SCHOOLBOYS

Both teams are playing well, and a good game is expected. Kick-off 2.45 p.m. Stand 1/-, Field 6d. Referee: Mr. Ivor David.
