ABOVE: M. Richards, Cardiff left-wing, scored a great second-half try which Mike Nicolai was too late to stop. See page 24 for Max Price's report.

CENTRE: Howard Norris, sturdy Cardiff and Wales prop, takes the line-out ball and prepares to tuck into the maul. Others, from the left, are: J. O'Shea (headband), L. Baxter, A. Pender, J. Hickey, P. Robertson (Varsities, obscured) and W. Hullin (9).

*RIGHT: W. Hullin, Cardiff
scrum-half, lands in touch, ball and all. Others (from left): S. Brynard, C. Holm and Fred Corin (touch-judge).*

AT NEWLANDS: Gareth Edwards, Cardiff full-back, did not get far in yesterday's rousing Newlands game in which Southern Universities beat the visitors 14—11 before about 26,000 spectators. Eben Olivier, Varsities centre, tackled him. Background: Albie de Waal, Varsities No. 8. Report, page 24.
