v.

CARDIFF

Here's to the All Whites!

By THE EDITOR

Our great and friendly rivals from Swansea are with us again today. We welcome them warmly and hope that today's match will prove as interesting as those of the past few years.

For Swansea it is their first full game and they include many new players in their back division. Indeed, there could be no sterner test for these youngsters than playing against a full Cardiff XV on the Arms Park before a large crowd.

However, we hope that these youngsters do well, for the misfortunes of the Swansea club this season are many. Greatest, perhaps, is the loss of those two fine players, Roy Sutton and Len Davies.

We hear that Sutton is making good progress and all will join with us in wishing him a speedy recovery to normal health.

At half-back Swansea will have Vivian Ganz and Goronwy Morgan, who have both played for the Welsh Secondary Schools. Ganz was at Wycliffe College, and achieved considerable fame in the Army as a full back. He has played in this position for Swansea. Morgan was a school partner of Cardiff's Cliff Morgan, and he might prove a likely substitute for the experienced Sutton.

Len Blyth is the new Swansea captain and he will have with him a strong pack of forwards who promise to give the Cardiff pack a really hard battle.

The Cardiff side is the same as that which defeated Bristol last week. Alun Thomas again continues at outside half in place of the injured Morgan, who, however, should be fit next week. Beckingham remains as hooker in place of Phillips.

As indicated in the Press this week arrangements are almost completed for Cardiff's 75th Anniversary. The match will start at 3.30. Season ticket holders will be admitted on showing their season tickets.

Tickets for the New Stand, reserved and numbered, will be on sale from Monday next, at 3s. each.

The special souvenir programme, priced 1s., will be on sale in Cardiff early on the morning of the match.

September 22. Make sure you get your copy, for they will be in great demand.

Next Wednesday Cardiff travel across to Penarth, where they always attract an enthusiastic crowd to the Penarth Athletic Ground. This is always a popular fixture and the Penarth club never fail to rise to the occasion when playing the Cardiff club, particularly on their home ground.

It will be remembered that not many seasons ago Bill Tamplin and his boys were beaten at Penarth. That was on the same day as the international match in Ireland, and admittedly Cardiff were weakened. But all due credit to Penarth. They never fail to give full value.
