

CARDIFF SCHOOLS RUGBY UNION

SID JUDD MEMORIAL FUND

A WELSH SCHOOLS XV

v

CARDIFF & DISTRICT BOYS XV

at Cardiff Arms Park on Monday, 20th April, 1959

KICK-OFF 3 p.m.

I first had the pleasure of meeting Sid Judd when he presented himself at Splotlands School as a keen student-teacher from Carmarthen Training College; one of the most likeable and sincere teachers I have had the occasion to meet and work with.

Sid will always be remembered as an outstanding International and Cardiff Club player, but we must not lose sight of the fact that he was also a first class teacher. A product of Cardiff High School, where he captained the 1st XV, Sid gained Secondary School caps in '45 and '46.

After military and college service Sid became an esteemed member of the staff at Windsor Clive School where he devoted his skill and many "out of school" hours to coaching and helping his boys in the game he loved. He was an extremely popular and valued member of the Cardiff Schools' Rugby Committee, and this match has been organised as a tribute to his services.

On behalf of my Committee I wish to extend thanks to the Cardiff Education Authority and the Welsh Schools' Union for making possible this benefit match; to the Cardiff Club for the use of the ground where Sid played so often and so gallantly; and to all who have so readily supported this deserving venture. My Committee and I hope that this game will be as Sid knew rugby—open, hard, clean.

IEUAN C. PRICE,
Chairman—C.S.R.U.
