PENARTH v. CARDIFF, Wednesday, 12th September

There is little need to introduce to-day's visitors, for many of our members are also subscribers to the Cardiff Club, and at the present moment are better acquainted with the Cardiff XV than the home side. It is many years since so many of the previous season's players have not been available to start the season. On the other hand, there is hardly a new face in the Cardiff XV. This is as it should be in the 75th year of the Club, when such a variety of opposition is to appear on the Arms Park.

A word on the newcomers on the Penarth side:

The three-quarter line is three-quarters new blood. L. J. Hill, undoubtedly the fastest wing-outside in Wales. Victor Vaughan is a product of the Cowbridge Club, whilst Dr. Alan Bater played for the Medicals last year.

At in-half, J. Cavanna follows J. G. Bater, who has had his calling-up papers. The two prop forwards, Hughes and Gibbons, replace McKay and Howe. McKay has accepted a post in Cornwall, and now plays for St. Ives, while Howe is in the Services.

Open-forward Pilot-Officer Trueman is a product of the Welsh Varsity, and is now stationed at St. Athan.
