PENARTH RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB

PENARTH v. CARDIFF, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 24th, 1949

PENARTH entertain Cardiff to-day and, whatever the result, we can be assured of football par excellence. Many Penarth supporters will welcome Frank Trott, but how many can recollect that that versatile player, W. B. Cleaver, has also worn the Penarth jersey in the days when Billy had not achieved the fame he has to-day.

In the Penarth side welcome will be given to Clive Davies and Chris Young. Clive takes over the captaincy in the absence of Derek Evans, who has a severe leg injury, and one wonders if Penarth will again produce the Welsh full-back. In the centre, Graham Rees makes his first appearance, and so the Universities are well represented, as we have a Cambridge, Oxford, London and Welsh University man in the side.

On Monday the pre-war Christmas tour to Northampton and Rugby takes place, and the Penarth officials will once more renew their friendship with that fine old stalwart, Jim Birch, who is now a very active member of the Northampton Committee.
