BREWERS WITH A FINE TRADITION.

The name "Brains" has a special reputation in the heart of South Wales.

Their superb beers have been brewed in Cardiff since 1882, and Brains pubs are still legendary for their traditional hospitality today.

IT TAKES BRAINS TO BREW BEER SO WELL.

Cardiff v. Newbridge

WEDNESDAY, 30th OCTOBER, 1985

KICK OFF 7.15 p.m.

It's the end of October and that heralds the beginning of the end of Wednesday night fixtures. With only two to be played in November, it brings some merciful relief to the hard slog of the Saturday-Wednesday pattern that has persisted since the season began and tonight sees us play our 17th game. Many have been saying that this is far too many at this early stage of the season but in terms of quality it is the norm and in fact by this time in season 1983-84 we had 19 games behind us. Having said that however, it has been recognised that we are playing too much rugby and fixture secretary Brian Mark has been given a mandate to prune our list with particular emphasis on reduction of Wednesday evening games. This will prove to be a very difficult job indeed and will also cause much disappointment to some of our present opponents.

There is no doubt about the fact that we would all have liked to see such opposition as Bristol, Bridgend, Pontypool, Bath and Newbridge on Saturday afternoon. The ever increasing difficulty of fixture making however and the particular restriction placed on us with the ever increasing use of the National Ground on Saturdays make this pruning operation to produce a regular and balanced list a very onerous task indeed and one which may take some years to finalise with its fair share of blood, sweat and tears.

Beside the quantity, the quality of rugby in Wales at the moment is also very much under the microscope. The general pattern existing seems to have been reflected in the result of the Wales B last Sunday week when their French counterparts gave our boys a bit of a roasting. What has changed then since only last season. The same players, more or less, are around the same referees as last year when practically every game we saw on the Arms Park was top quality entertainment, indeed some were pure magic. Dare it be said then that what has changed are the laws of the game.

Without doubt, players are finding it hard to become fully acquainted with the new tackle law to know what is within the law and what is not. Referees too are also striving hard to arrive at a uniform interpretation of the changes. Some of the scrummaging I've seen this year leaves a lot to be desired also. Many of the players would need to have shoulder pads in their jerseys bigger than those of Linda Evans in Dynasty in order to bring their shoulders up to the level of their hips. But rest assured however both players and referees are doing their utmost to adapt themselves and maybe before long, with a little tolerance and patience, we will be back to the high entertainment situation of last season and praising the law makers for the changes.

On to tonight now however and we have to be on our toes to reverse the defeats we have suffered on the previous Wednesdays of this month against Bridgend, Pontypool and finally Bath last week. Newbridge, at their best, have achieved some splendid victories this season and none better than a win at The Knoll over Neath. They also had another good win away to Gloucester, whilst at home they have accounted for the likes of Bridgend, South Wales Police and last Saturday a 25-12 win over Maesteg. Consistency seems to have eluded them however and they have gone down to Ebbw Vale, Abertillery, Aberavon, Saracens, Newport and last Wednesday to all conquering Pontypool.

Newbridge are very much infants of our fixture list as we first played each other in 1963. This of course was their halcyon era because in season 1964-65 they won the Welsh Club championship. Even in those days there seemed to be a bit of an interchange of players between our clubs. Names such as Cyril Evans and Les Hewer played for them in the sky blue and black after playing in the cambridge blue and black of Cardiff. Up to the present time this lease lend is continuing and in their ranks are the likes of Peter Goodfellow and Jeff Howells whilst we have been on the receiving end of Terry Shaw and more recently Alan Glasdon.

In all we have played Newbridge 17 times of which we have won 12 to their 3 with the remaining two drawn. We have collected 273 points for with 158 against. Over the last few years we have met with fair regularity in the Cup with three encounters over the last four seasons. Of their three wins, one of them came in Cardiff in 1982 when they won by 11 points to 10 so they obviously would like to make it a second tonight. Ex-Cardiff player Peter Goodfellow has now well established himself in their side, is their top scorer with 102 and has made a big contribution to their good wins of late. This was very much so in their come back from the dead situation against South Wales Police when he spearheaded an amazing revival to achieve victory in a game that was looking to slip away from them. So welcome Newbridge, we hope you enjoy a pleasant evening at Cardiff Arms Park.

Finally, many thanks to UBM for their generous sponsorship of tonight's game, we hope they and their guests enjoy the occasion.

Rugby Quiz – No. 6

Who are responsible for these words of wisdom?

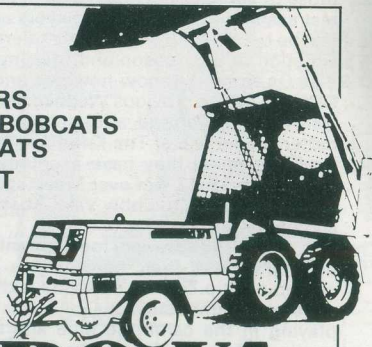

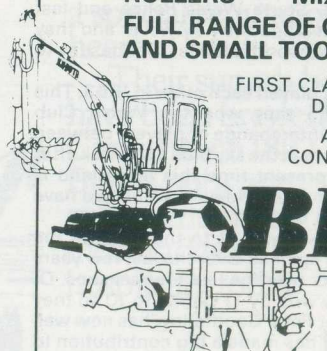

1. Who was said to keep remarking during a match, "That was naughty of young Graham, — that was naughty"?
2. Who said of whom, "I was very surprised by the gentlemanly approach of — and I thought the international series was going to be easy if all flank forwards were like him"?
3. Who said, "If you are proud to play for Wales then you should be prepared to die for Wales"?
4. Who said, "I sometimes get quite frightened when I watch myself on television"?
5. Who said "I wanted to go to a grammar school that played soccer, but instead went to Watford Grammar School and learned to play rugby"?

KNOW THE LAWS

By J. E. MALCOLM THOMAS

"KICK-OR-KICK"

It is illegal for any player who is not running for the ball wilfully to charge or obstruct an opponent who has just kicked the ball.

The referee should give the non-offending team the option of taking the penalty kick,

(1) at the place of infringement, or,

(2) where the ball alights.

If the ball alights in touch, then the mark for the penalty is 15 metres from the touch line through the place where it went into touch.

If the ball alights within 15 metres from the touch line, then the mark for the penalty is also 15 metres from the touch line in line with the place where it alighted.

If the ball alights in-goal, touch-in-goal or over or on the dead ball line, then the mark for the penalty is 5 metres from the goal line on a line parallel to the touch line through the place where it crossed the goal-line or 15 metres from the touch line whichever is the greater.

If the player is obstructed after kicking the ball and the ball strikes a goal post, the optional penalty should be awarded where the ball alights after bouncing off the post.

PAST PLAYERS CORNER

EVAN 'IANTO' JONES

Ianto Jones is as Cardiff as Queen Street. Born in Llandaff North he attended Hawthorn School until he left at fourteen. He then spent four years at sea before settling in the building industry. Prior to joining Cardiff he earned his spurs with Cardiff and District having played against Cardiff. He joined Cardiff in 1936-37 season and rapidly established himself as a very good wing forward. He won his 'Rags' cap in his first season with the club and then gained his first team cap the following year. His versatility was such that he played in many positions both inside and outside the scrum.

Perhaps his best claim to fame was on 22nd April, 1939 when he was one of the team that won the Middlesex Sevens. It was Cardiff's first venture in Sevens rugby and a particularly fine win considering the expertise and experience of the opposition. The winning side of that day consisted of Wilf Wooler, captain; Gwyn Porter; Graham Hale; W.R. Davies (Cliff's brother); Les Spence; Selby Davies and of course Ianto.

The war made a large hole in his rugby career and he served in The Royal Artillery. He played many war time games on the Arms Park and resumed full time at the end of hostilities. In all he played in 55 first team games before finishing in 1946-47.

Where is he to be found these days — not very far away I'm glad to say. He is in fact one of our happy band of doormen in the Club foyer. He guards the downstairs lounge against non members as vigilantly as he hunted outside halves in his playing days. And long may this continue.

QUIDNUNC'S COLUMN

IVOR ELDMANN . . . and there is no point in complaining to either Quidnunc or to the printer for any mis-spelling in the name. It is deliberate: for under that pseudonym the redoubtable Cardiff prop appeared in the programme of an away match at Rodney Parade. Where else, you might ask, other than at the home of those black-and-amber whatsits? Who, then, this Ivor Eidmann? Well, Quidnunc had severe doubts as to the legitimacy of Derek Stears cartooning Ian Eidman on the opposite page with the ball in his hands. Yet, despite the protestations of his team-mates, we have been able this season so far to count seven times when he has handled the ball legally. Before that, it is true, we have to go back to that unique occasion when Ian snapped up a pass from Heavy Keg (sorry, Kev) to score the runaway five-metre try which was responsible for Cardiff winning the WRU/Schweppes Cup against Bridgend in 1982. It was his first try for the club and he talks about it today only if pressed. Which is most unusual for a prop, as is the man generally. Whereas most people wearing the Nos. 1 or 3 shirts are rather more identified by their variety of grunts, this cannot be said today as we turn up the file on tomorrow's articulate birthday boy . . .

IAN HAROLD EIDMAN

PERSONAL DETAILS

Birthplace: Cardiff.

Birthday: October 31, 1956.

Height/Weight: 6ft; 16st 2-4oz.

Schools: Penarth Grammar, followed by University of Wales Institute of Science and Technology where he gained the BSc (Econ) degree.

Previous clubs: Dinas Powys, UWIST and UAU.

Married: No.

Employment: Capital Reprographics (Wales) Ltd. in Woodville Road, Cardiff.

Car: Ford Sierra.

Superstitions: Few, touch wood. Yes, touching wood. Or Jeff Whitefoot's head. But nothing like taking the field last. "Bobby Norster won't allow anyone behind him."

Career: Won secondary school caps and played for Dinas Powys and the UAU before joining Cardiff. Wales B cap against France 1982 before first full cap against Scotland in 1983. Toured Spain with Wales, Zimbabwe and South Africa with Cardiff. Missed out of Welsh team through back injury several times but has been capped eight times to date.

Club nickname: Ivor (see above). Bill — and Ben (either, along with Mr. Whitefoot).

PERSONAL FAVOURITES

Rugby player: "I must mention Alan Phillips . . . and Gareth Davies when he kicks ahead of us."

Referee: None. "I take them all as they come."

Biggest influence: "My family for all their support."

Other sport: Sea angling. Anything except horse racing because "I can't understand why the team syndicate never wins when I am a part of it."

Other sportsman: Daly Thompson.

Film: The Great Escape — "particularly the first time it was shown on television." Or any film including Charles Bronson or . . .

Actor: Clint Eastwood.

Actress: Quidnunc should explain that at least half-an-hour of Sunday morning went by as we discussed the subject. We ranged from Hilda Ogden to . . . Sophia Loren.

Comedian: Dave Allen, Russ Abbott and Alan Phillips, any chapter of whose Coaching Manual will one day be worth reading if not published.

TV programme: Minder and Terry Wogan.

Pop star: "Group, please, rather than star. Bad Company."

Holiday resort: Corfu. "as it was years ago though it might have changed. Otherwise, Ibiza."

Food: Steak. Chinese takeaway.

Drink: Guinness when you can find a decent pint.

Politician: None. "All they do is to take part in a war of words."

Rugby ground: Murrayfield.

MEMORIES

Best: My first cap, "though I remember only bits of the game. Fortunately, I have the video to remember it in the future." Being also part of a successful Cardiff team. "And we could be this season. We usually start to motor sometime in November and, even if we haven't so far played that well, we haven't had bad results."

Worst: Last season, suffering from too many back injuries. Quidnunc found Ian Eidman just about to leave his Dinas Powys home for the National Sports Centre on the Sunday morning after the match "to try to loosen up a bit. I'm off to use the multi-gym, keeping fit more regularly and consistently but . . . from the heavy weights which could damage my back again at this stage. But I'm getting more fit." Which explains his . . .
