The Week's Gossip.

The Soliloquy of the New Stand.
Lord Ninlan! Prince of Sportsmen!
My stately structure's proud,
That you have come to christen it
Before the assembled crowd,
Like you, I stand for Cardiff;
So, when you think it meet
To visit me, you'll always find
"No change" in your safe seat.

Soliloquy of the Member who cannot forget the Old Structure.

I remember, I remember,
The stand whereon I sat.
I used to wonder whether it
Would bear my weight of fat.
But now I sit with confidence
My lady well in sight,
Who nestles close in deep content
For since I'm left, she's right.

All are heartily invited to the grand Smoking Concert at the Park Hall to-night. Members will be admitted on production of their tickets, while non-members will be charged the modest sum of 6d.

What will Cardiff do to-day? Candidly, I think their chances are not particularly rosy. But experience has taught us that it is imprudent to prognosticate the result between Newport and Cardiff for "form" has been badly upset on so many occasions.

The Newport backs have been passing lately with that rhythmic swing that characterised the Usksiders of nearly two decades ago. Martin is very slippery, while Birt and Hirst are liable to snap up the slightest chance. To use a sporting slang, it is up to Spiller to see that chances are not offered them.

What a rumpus about Cardiff's alleged poaching! If Heslop and Stanley Williams apply direct to the Cardiff Committee for places in the team, how can the Committee be accused of poaching? Echo answers why.

W. J. MARTIN, the Newport Captain.
