W.R.U. CUP FINAL

Bold type denotes Heineken League Division Two Fixtures

CLUB NOTES

It may have a strange ring to it, but tonight Penarth go in search of a season's double over First Division neighbours Cardiff!

Yes, it was only six months ago, on September 15, that Penarth registered their first victory at the Arms Park for more than half a century. It was a memorable occasion indeed for Penarth supporters and players, ending a 40-year drought against the men in blue and black.

However, the 26-17 win proved something of a false dawn for the seashiders, for they lost their next league fixture at home to Llanharan a result which could yet have a major bearing on the Division Two relegation battle.

Cardiff, on the other hand, have gone from strength-to-strength and are still in contention for a Heineken League and SWALEC Cup double as the seasons enters its final stretch.

Whatever the outcome of tonight's 147th meeting between our two clubs, Penarth will know that the serious stuff lies ahead with only a handful of league games remaining as the fight for survival goes on. The defeat at Glamorgan Wanderers was a serious setback, but Tim Crothers and his team know that they still have the power to shape their own destiny. Defeat against Mountain Ash next month is unthinkable, of course, but only the hungriest sides will stay up.

Also coming up is the second Slogger Sevens Tournament on Good Friday when we hope for better weather than that which greeted the inaugural event. The teams taking part are Old Penarthians, Cardiff, Dinas Powys, Glamorgan Wanderers, Public School Wanderers, Penarth, The Welshmen and the Medical Barbarians (otherwise known as the Aescalapians!). In addition to the main event the Athletic Field will stage a family fun day with numerous attractions (see local press for full details). We hope to see you all there for what should prove another entertaining day of rugby.
