WELCOME

Welcome to Cardiff Arms Park for today's Principality Premiership game between Cardiff and Cross Keys.

With the Blue & Blacks having made a winning start to the season the squad will be looking to carry on with the run against a side Cardiff have always found a handful to beat. Wins against Newport, Merthyr last time here, and a last minute win at Bargoed Park have put Cardiff in to second place in the East Division of the league. Only Bedwas are above us as they have one extra bonus point. They, Cardiff and Llandovery are now the only unbeaten sides in the Premiership. The win here two weeks ago against Merthyr showed how the side is growing as a team. Despite setbacks of two yellow cards the team dug deep against last season's Champions to inflict their first defeat of the season. In the first ten minutes at Bargoed last week it looked as if the team would run riot. Two tries, one from Dan Fish and a penalty try put the Blue & Blacks 14-0 up. From there though it was a struggle and the home side came back to lead 17-14 with time nearly up. A first try in Cardiff colours from Jack Roberts though ensured the win and a huge sigh of relief.

Cross Keys have had a tough start to the season, letting leads slip against Merthyr and Bargoed respectively. Last week at home to Ebbw Vale they got back to winning ways with a hard fought 20-12 win. Having got the first win Keys will want to keep that momentum going. We know what qualities they possess and what they have done here in previous games, last season was the first win for the Blue & Blacks on home turf for a few seasons. The Keys squad shows several names familiar to Cardiff supporters. Leon Andrews, Lewis Smout, Richard Cornock and Adam Powell and we look forward to catching up with them post the game.

With the new league structure we will meet the Keys three times at least this season, twice at Pandy Park but today we welcome the supporters, committee, playing squad and coaching staff from Cross Keys to the Arms Park.

Enjoy the rugby!

LAST TIME OUT

Cardiff 24 Merthyr 17

Cardiff won a pulsating game at the Arms Park against the Champions Merthyr in a game that held everyone's interest until the very last kick.

In a first half that was as forgettable as the second was unforgettable both sides seemed to be trying to serve up a dull encounter. Neither side really got going. Merthyr made the better start and their set piece scrum and lineout were yielding position and the ball for large parts of the half. But one thing that has shone through in the last few games is that this Cardiff side will not be bullied and the Blue & Black defence was outstanding in keeping the visitors at bay.

When Cardiff did have a sustained period of pressure they got their reward. A high tackle resulting in three points from the boot of Gareth Thompson. All the ball the Ironmen had was eventually going to lead to points and the score came courtesy of a try set up by the forwards but dotted down by scrum half Justin James. That left the half time score 5-3 to the visitors and the coaches of both sides with some work to do in the break.

Whatever was said worked as the game sprang into life. Merthyr increased their lead when their set piece again reaped rewards. A loose kick had given them territory and when a penalty was kicked into the corner the resulting maul saw Ben Murphy crash over. The conversion rebounded off the post to keep the lead to one score.

Cardiff came back with a driving try of their own. This time set up by some great work by Owen Lane and Pat Lewis. When the ball was eventually smuggled into touch Merthyr must have thought the danger had gone but James Down disrupted the lineout, Luke Crocker pounced and after consulting with his Assistant visiting referee Cwengile Jadezweni (SARFU) awarded the score. Thompson was just wide with the conversion but put the Blue & Blacks ahead when a high tackle on Will Rees-Hole was penalised. The one-point advantage was bettered when replacement flyhalf Ben Thomas added a penalty of his own this time for offside.

Cardiff were creating lots of chances and Dan Fish, who made a welcome return to the Blue & Blacks, was at the heart of most things. When he spotted space down the right he set Llywarch Ap Myrddin free. The full back looked to link with Pat Lewis but he was dragged back (an offence that was not spotted by the officials) and nothing came of the break.

Lewis did get his chance a few minutes later, however. This time Fish linked with Rees-Hole, Lewis backed his centre up and was on his shoulder to take the pass and score. Thomas added the conversion and Cardiff looked in control.

Merthyr weren't finished and the set piece was again going to bring reward, the referee awarding a penalty try at the first time of asking to cut the deficit to four points. The visitors should have gone back in front but the defining moment of the game saw them fall short. Kyle Evans collected a loose ball and when the wing burst through the Cardiff defence it looked like the Ironmen were heading for another try.

When his inside pass found Teri Gee the centre looked for all the world like he would score. Owen Lane had other ideas and his determination not only cut Gee down a few centimetres from the line but also dislodged the ball for Cardiff to clear.

That seemed to give Cardiff the belief that they could win the game. Thomas kicked a straight forward but nonetheless pressured kick to extend the lead to seven when the referee reversed a Merthyr penalty after some retaliation. The Blue & Black defence did the rest as they saw out the last few minutes with Reuben Tucker and Rhys Carre to the fore of the effort.

Bargoed 17 Cardiff 21

Cardiff kept their unbeaten start to the season going at Bargoed Park but it took a last minute try to keep it in tact.

The game started with a bang for the Blue & Blacks. Almost straight from the kick-off the visitors were in front. Having regathered the kick, the Blue & Black forwards went through one or two phases before releasing the backs. Gareth Thompson got the backline going and Will Rees-Hole sent Dan Fish over in the corner. Thompson added the conversion from wide out, but he wasn't needed for the second try as it was all down to the pack. A penalty was kicked to the corner and from the rolling maul the ball seemed to be heading over the line. But an illegal entry sent the referee under the posts for a penalty try. The next sixty-five minutes were forgettable for the Blue & Blacks. Mistake after mistake meant no momentum or field position. This allowed Bargoed to get not so much a foothold but more of a strangle hold. Their pack got into the game and dominated the scrum, shunting Cardiff about on most occasions. They also disrupted the lineout, competing at every opportunity.

Their first score came after some aimless kicking by both sides. Bargoed hit holes up the middle of the park until Cardiff ran out of defenders. No8 Ieuan Jones the scorer, Matthew Jenkins adding the extras. He added a penalty shortly after, but pushed a second attempt wide a few minutes later.

But the home side eventually got their noses in front just before the break. Centre Darren Humphries, who was a thorn in the Blue & Blacks side set it up, but his partner Jordan Howells the -scorer. Jenkins converted to send the home side in 17-14 up at half time.

If the first half was error strewn the second was worse. In fact, the busiest man on the field was the referee as he had to blow for scrum after scrum. Neither side got anything going. Cardiff defended well and kept Bargoed at bay, but going forward nothing was going quite right. With a few minutes left it looked Bargoed would hold on for their first victory over Cardiff. But a penalty awarded near the half way line allowed Lewis Jones to take a quick tap. He was supported by Llywarch Ap Myrddin who came close to the line, but he was stopped short only for debutant Jack Roberts to burst through and score. Ben Thomas added the conversion, but the home side had one last roll of the dice. When a penalty was nudged into the corner the line out needed to be caught and rolled over. The lineout was won, but the second part of the equation didn't work to plan and Cardiff were able to clear the danger and hold on for the win.

CARDIFF RUGBY SUPPORTERS CLUB

What a cracking start to the season! Fantastic to see Cardiff rugby playing a winning brand of rugby. We'd like to express our gratitude to all the players, coaches and staff for giving all Cardiff rugby supporters something to smile about. C'mon boys, let's make it five wins out of five against Cross Keys today!

Travel Arrangements

During the early part of the season, while we're playing in the east pool, we'll not be running buses to away games. They'll restart in the new year when we begin playing opposition further away. Keep an eye on these programme notes or our website for further information.

Merchandise and Membership

Why not come and see us in the clubhouse where you can join the supporters club and/or purchase various items of merchandise. We have some super new scarfs, so why not get ready for winter now? Don't forget that if you're short on time you can always do so via the online shop on our website.

Christmas Lunch

Yes we know it's only September, but we're taking bookings for the supporters club Christmas dinner on Saturday 2nd December at Cardiff Arms Park. Tickets are selling fast so if you'd like to come along please call Clive as soon as possible on 07902 819911. Vegetarian options available. This is the same day as the Bedwas home game so why not treat yourself to lunch before the game.

Bargoed, 9th September 2017

Our thanks to Bargoed RFC who made us feel most welcome. Their supporters club were even kind enough to offer us a lift up to their ground, which in hindsight we should have accepted given the steep walk up Wood Street! Thankfully the rain held off and the team did us proud again by sneaking a win in the closing stages of the match. Brilliant day all round.

Passionate About Cardiff Rugby?

Then why not volunteer via the supporters club and help our great club to prosper. We're always delighted to welcome new friends so please do get in touch either via the website, social media or by email to programme@cardiffrugbysupportersclub.org
