CARDIFF RUGBY CLUB | Here's to the Wasps!

By THE EDITOR.

Welcome to the Wasps-our popular Christmas visitors from Sudbury. Last season the Londoners gained their first ever victory over Cardiff and Compton's Merry Men hope to-day to repeat the performance—this time on Welsh ground!

This season the Wasps opened with seven successive wins and it was not until Cardiff visited Sudbury on Oct. 21 that the Wasps' famous "sting" proved unsuccessful. It was a splendid game. and Cardiff's victory came by a nerrow five points margin.

To-day's visitors set great store by the attacking game and memories of Woodward's great touch-line run and thrilling try two seasons ago will never be lost by Arms Park spectators. Indeed, the Wasps play Cardiff at their own game, and quite successfully, too, for the clash is one of the most eagerly awaited of the holiday games.

The Wasps had four representatives—B. J. Young (wing), P. W. Sykes (scrum half), and J. H. Herbert and R. A. Syrett (forwards) in the Middlesex County Championship side which narrowly beat Surrey at Richmond Athletic Ground last week. Our old friend, or should I say "enemy," "Nim" Hall reminded us of his drop-goal prowess with two such efforts to Surrey's goal. It was Hall, now with Richmond, who shattered Welsh hopes on that sunny January day in 1947 in the first full international in Britain following the war years.

Eleven teams are run each week by the Wasps—if this is not a record it certainly deserves to be! Another point of interest is that Neville Compton played for the First XV in almost every match for 21 years, and was captain for eight years.

He played for the Barbarians and in English Trial matches. He now skippers the Vandals who lost only two games last season and won their first 13 matches this year. His rugby career has certainly been a long and meritorious one. Bravo Neville!

The Wasps too, like Cardiff, have visited Nantes. Though they did not win their match this season, they did well and had a wonderful time!

Cardiff's players were in demand last week. Five of them—Jack Matthews, Bleddyn Williams, Rex Willis, D. J. O'Brien and Cliff Davies—journeyed to Dublin for Karl Mullen's exhibition game between an Old Belvedere Selected

"Overlooking the Ground"

XV v. British Isles Touring Team. Three other members, Haydn Morris—the wing-threequarter "discovery" of the season—Malcolm Collins and Sid Judd (forwards) appeared in the belated Second Welsh Trial at Maesteg. But THE man in demand was cheerful Cliff Davies. This week the wedding bells will ring for Cardiff's happiest front row forward in years. We all wish him the very best for the future. Humour seems his by heritage.

This Boxing morning Cardiff Athletic visited the famous Bishop's Field, Llandaff, where they met the local side in their "Derby" game of the season. Whenever these two meet spectators are assured of a "thriller", and those who saw Llandaff preserve their ground record against the Athletic's challenge three seasons ago still discuss points enthusiastically. Llandaff have no ground record this season, but will strive as always to come out best. It's a reputation they have, and always will.
